

SMALL EMPHASIZES NEED OF ECONOMY

GOVERNOR DEMANDS RETRENCHMENT IN APPROPRIATIONS

Calls Attention to Fact that Omnibus Bill Carries $7,000,000 More than Estimated Last December--Says there is Limit to Amount of Taxes People Can Pay.

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 9.—Governor Small, following introduction of the omnibus bill in the house today, called a meeting of his cabinet and emphasized the need of economy in all departments. He then called upon the legislature demanding retrenchment in appropriations.

The governor said: "Extraordinary demands for increased appropriations are coming to the general assembly from practically every section of the state. These demands must be scaled to the lowest possible minimum in compliance with the actual needs of the state government and the general welfare of the people."

"To state officials this morning I called attention to the fact that the appropriations in the omnibus bill two years ago were $28,000,000. The budget estimates for the omnibus bill of 1921, submitted last December by the outgoing administration called for an increase of $3,000,000 or a total of $31,000,000.

VETERAN LEADERS STAGE BIG FIGHT IN LEGISLATURE

Shanahan and Lee
O'Neil Browne Lock Horns on School Tax

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 9.—Tax bills today caused the stormiest session of the 52nd general assembly. After three hours with the house in an uproar much of the time, the Chicago provisions of the school tax bill were amended to fix the rate at $1.92 for educational purposes and at eight cents for the purchase of free text books. The $2 rate for downstate schools did not figure in the battle.

Former Speaker Shanahan led the victorious forces in amending the Chicago rate to set aside a specific amount for text books. Rep. Lee O'Neil Browne of LaSalle county took the leadership in fighting for a straight $2 rate. The situation grew tense as the two veterans of the house plunged into the battle which threatened to grow into a personal one.

Leaders Make Charges
The former speaker charged Browne with representing the Chicago board of education in the fight. The LaSalle county Democrat answered by saying that Shanahan, as speaker of the house had shown favoritism to measures in which he was interested in sessions past.

"Before any more members go insane I move that the further consideration of this question be postponed," said Representative Pierce of Belvidere, as Representative Browne was threatening to bare secrets of twenty years if any attack was made upon him.

With the situation relieved the house voted down Representative Pierce's motion and finished the fight, sending the bill to third reading.

Both houses traveled at a high speed today until the house struck the tax bill against the afternoon. Many minor bills were passed in both senate and house and large batches of bills were allowed on the calendars.

KENYON BILL IS PASSED BY SENATE

Permits Increase in Interest Rates on Bonds of Joint Stock Banks From Five to Five and One-half Per Cent.

(By The Associated Press)
Washington, June 9.—The senate passed and sent to the house today the Kenyon bill amending the federal farm loan act to permit an increase in interest rates on bonds of joint stock land banks from 5 to 5 1/2 per cent. During the debate which preceded adoption, tax exempt securities came under a strong fire and demands were made that the government eradicate what was described as the tax exemption evil.

Senator Smoot, Republican of Utah, submitted an amendment to the Kenyon measure to make income from such bonds taxable. A lengthy debate followed and Mr. Smoot withdrew the amendment.

Mr. Smoot declared the stock land banks created under the farm loan act were beginning to compete with their parent institutions. Strictly speaking, he said, they were private organizations.

Senator Kenyon maintained that the stock land banks were victimized by farm mortgage bankers' associations, charging that the mortgage interests had spread propaganda against the whole farm loan system in order that they might charge higher rates of interest on loans to farmers.

SUSPECTED OF MANY BURGLARIES

Chicago, June 9.—Seven men and three women were arrested today in connection with recent burglaries from small stores in the country business sections that are believed to have netted an organized band more than $100,000.

DESIRE FOR PEACE IS EXPRESSED AT HEARING OF BOARD

Representatives and Employees Hold Rhetorical Love Feast

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, June 9.—The second wage reduction hearing before the railroad labor board in which more than 150 railroads asked wage cuts, wound up in a rhetorical love feast today with representatives of both railroads and employees expressing a desire for peace and amity in the railroad industry.

"Let's pull the country out of the situation it faces today," urged F. W. Sargent, counsel for the Chicago & Northwestern. "We are anxious to settle controversies for the benefit of all. We have faith in this board. So far as this road is concerned it will obey every decision, even if it takes us into the hands of the receiver."

Mr. Sargent pleaded for a more lenient stand on the eight hour day. Unusual situations demanded harder and longer work, he said.

Express Appreciation

Heads of the big four brotherhoods expressed their appreciation of the spirit of cooperation, shown by Mr. Sargent and other rail representatives and the case was concluded with exception of a dispute over the right of the Pullman company to appear.

Chairman Barton announced the board would consider the Pullman application tomorrow morning.

A lengthy argument over application of the board's decision of April 14 regarding abrogation of the so-called national agreements, marked the opening session. The decision terminated, effective July 1, the board's direction of last year that the agreements be continued.

Some railroads, it was said, held that the agreements were abrogated, regardless of whether new agreements had been negotiated to replace them. The board was asked to place an interpretation on the decision and members said later that they considered optional with the roads and their employees whether the agreements were abrogated.

The wage hearing which ended today occupied but four days both sides mainly reiterating testimony offered in the hearing last month. A decision was expected soon.

TRUE BILLS FOUND AGAINST LEADERS

Thomas Kearney, President of the Chicago Building Trades Council,
His Predecessor and Four Labor Agents are Indicted.

Chicago, June 9.—True bills were voted against Thomas Kearney, president of the Chicago building trades council, Simon O'Donnell, his predecessor, and four other labor agents by a special grand jury today. It was announced by George A. Gorman, assistant state's attorney. The grand jury and the county joint legislative committee have been investigating alleged graft in the building industry. The others named in true bills were Thomas Flynn and William Schardt, business agents of the Painters' Union. Curran has three true bills against him. It is alleged that $2,500,000 was paid O'Donnell during the remodeling of a downtown hotel last year and the money was divided between Schardt and Curran. Kearney, Flynn, Wallace and Curran are alleged to have demanded $2,500 and received $1,300 to settle a labor dispute which stopped construction work on a motion picture theatre.

PEGGY HOPKINS JOYCE LOSES FIRST ROUND

CHICAGO, June 9.—Attorneys for Peggy Hopkins Joyce, actress, suing her millionaire husband, J. Stanley Joyce for $100,000 a year alimony today lost their fight to obtain money from Joyce to investigate his conduct since his marriage.

Attorneys for Mrs. Joyce contended her husband had spent a considerable sum "investigating her conduct abroad" and asked an equal amount for a similar inquiry into the husband's past. Judge Sabath ruled Joyce's expenditures were a personal matter between himself and his attorneys and could not be inquired into in court.

Joyce testified his fortune had been reduced to $2,995,000 by the expenditure of more than a million dollars for jewels, clothes, automobiles and a southern home for his bride.

TAKE COGNIZANCE OF SPEECH MADE BY ADMIRAL SIMS

Senate Orders Its Naval Committee to Investigate Remarks

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 9.—Cognizance was taken in the senate and house today of the speech in London of Rear Admiral W. S. Sims, referring to Irish sympathizers in this country. The senate ordered its naval committee to investigate the speech and in the house Representative Ryan, Republican, New York, submitted a resolution for an investigation charging the remarks had constituted an attack upon the loyal citizens of Irish blood and accused American citizens of being traitors.

Secretary Denby awarded a reply today to his formal inquiry called to Admiral Sims asking whether remarks attributed to him had been correctly reported in press dispatches, but left his office without having received it.

The senate resolution was introduced by Senator Harrison, Democrat, Mississippi and was adopted with little debate and without a record vote. Senator Wadsworth, Republican, New York asked whether the action taken by Secretary Denby would not serve the same purpose as the resolution. Mr. Harrison replied: "Possibly so." Mr. Harrison explained: "Due I think the charges in this case are so grave that the senate cannot afford to ignore them."

PLANS CONSIDERED TO PROVIDE CREDIT FOR CATTLE RAISERS

Treasury Officials Have the Matter Under Consideration Now.

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 9.—Plans for providing credit facilities for cattle raisers without new legislation are under consideration by treasury officials. The proposal it was explained today would be an alternative to the federal reserve board's recent recommendation for legislation to make available to the war finance corporation $50,000,000 for loans in the industry.

Details of the new plan were not disclosed but it was said quicker relief could be afforded cattlemen and that it would preclude war finance corporation activity in the cattle situation as that agency could only act under congressional authority.

It is understood the formation of a banking pool to handle cattle credits is under consideration along the lines of cotton pool of 1919. Backed by the treasury it was asserted such a pool would have the encouragement of the federal reserve system in providing the longer term loans needed by the stockmen.

NO IMMEDIATE BUSINESS REVIVAL

WASHINGTON, June 9.—World economic conditions during May pointed to no immediate general business revival, according to the monthly summaries from its foreign representatives issued tonight by the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce.

Considerable improvement financially was noted in Europe but trade and shipping were dull with marked industrial difficulties apparent.

While money is easier in Great Britain the coal strike has caused a general depression of trade and industry. London reports declared. The industrial situation probably has never been worse the report continued with over 2,000,000 persons idle and a shutdown operating on part time.

The French government appears satisfied with the success of the $100,000,000 loan floated in the United States and feels it will permit payment of debts previously contracted in this country the report asserted.

ONE SLAIN IN TAXICAB WARFARE

CHICAGO, June 9.—One man slain, several injured, a number of shootings and many cabs wrecked, the toll of a two-day taxi cab war resulted tonight in whole sale arrests of drivers for the two rival companies.

Detectives raided the office of one company, arrested two men and seized records. Later 25 drivers were arrested on a technical charge of operating without a cab stand license. State's Attorney Crowe declared an investigation would be made at once.

Attorneys for one company charged that their drivers, all union men, were being persecuted. The drivers for the other company were non-union.

THOMAS E. WILSON MAKES STATEMENT ON MEAT INDUSTRY

Says if Legislation is Needed to Allay Prejudice Let it Come

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, June 9.—Thomas E. Wilson, president of the Institute of American Meat Packers today forwarded to every member of congress a statement regarding the economic situation of the meat and livestock industry in connection with the proposed federal regulation of the meat packing industry.

"This great meat and livestock industry is not in a position to stand much longer the stress of the situation we have gone thru in the last 18 months," the statement said.

Taking up Packer legislation the statement declared the packers were not opposed to all kinds of legislation but considered the proposed Norris bill unwise, inexpedient and unnecessary because it did not solve the economic problems of the producing and consuming public or the packer because it delegated arbitrary powers contrary to the spirit of American institutions, because it set up governmental despotism over private business which would be destructive of individual enterprise and because it gave the power to limit the number and kind of articles handled by a private business.

Says Public Prejudiced
"There is a state of mind at present that is detrimental to this industry," the statement continued. "Whether this is based on facts or not, it is a prejudice and prejudice is harmful. It may be that the public has been reached where its prejudice can be allayed only by legislation. If that is true then I personally think—and I speak for myself and not for all the packers—that, if some legislation can be worked out which will clear the public mind of such prejudice, it would be desirable from the standpoint of all interested in the industry."

"Such legislation in my opinion should be limited to concentrating some supervisory authority in one agency of the government, say for argument's sake, the department of agriculture."

"I think the danger congress should try to avoid is in making these bills too far reaching. I think it better to formulate a conservative bill rather than one of opposite nature, and I want to emphasize that any bill will never accomplish the results unless the agency having the supervisory power has the ability and the right to bring these different branches of this industry together."

MORE THAN 130 ARE MISSING IN FLOOD

Red Cross Has Taken Charge of Work of Rebuilding of City of Pueblo.

Pueblo, Colo., June 9.—According to the latest available figures from the Red Cross and other official sources more than 130 persons are listed "missing" as a result of the flood. The "missing" list is compiled by military authorities and the Red Cross from inquiries by telegraph, mail and personal inquiry.

This afternoon the Red Cross sent to The Associated Press a list of missing which contained 137 names. It was discovered afterward that many names were duplicated and that many persons whose names were on it had been accounted for.

Rebuilding of the city, including the reconstruction of wrecked homes, restoration of the business and industrial sections devastated by water and the administration of relief thruout the flooded district today was turned over to the direction of the American Red Cross disaster relief administration.

HOME BREWERS USE LOTS OF RAISINS

WASHINGTON, June 9.—Home brewers used up more than 12,000 tons of raisins in 1919, W. M. Giffin, president of the California Associated Raisin company estimated today in giving a senate sub-committee his views on the pending bill to authorize collective bargaining by farmers. He placed the raisin grape crop at 1918 at 167,000 tons and of 1919 at 183,000 tons, the difference in his judgment representing demand from home brewers. This demand was not decreasing, he added, the "hobby" for home brewing apparently having worn itself out to some extent.

ORGANIZED MEN MUST FREE INDUSTRY OF INTER-UNION STRIFE

Labor Leader Tells Building Trades Delegates They Must Stop Tying up Work Where None But Union Men are Employed

Demagogues Cause Jurisdictional Strikes

(By The Associated Press)
DENVER, Colo., June 9.—Organized men must free the industry of inter-union strife, craft jurisdictional disputes or other unnecessary and burdensome oppressive restriction, John H. Donlin, president of the building trades department of the American Federation of Labor told the delegates to the department's annual convention.

Every organization must guarantee to arbitrate all questions arising in the industry, the labor leader asserted, and provision must be made to prevent any cessation of work pending the adjudication of any controversy.

"We must once and for all stop tying up building operations upon which none but union men are employed," he added. "We must not injure communities, cause innocent persons to suffer pecuniary loss, not to mention mental anguish, the danger of financial ruin as well as cause our great rank and file to suffer incalculable losses."

Mr. Donlin declared he believed jurisdictional strikes are the result of demagogues and aspirants for office or they emanate from a class of workers which it is impossible to satisfy, or for reasons that will not stand for the magnifying glass.

"This convention will indeed be a mockery, a hypocrisy on the things our movements stand for unless we solve our inter-union disputes," asserted the labor leader, urging that the department reaffirm its support to the national board of jurisdictional awards in the building industry.

Capital and labor should cooperate to reduce the cost of living, he said.

The aggregate wage paid to building workers is not high or responsible for the high cost of building, Donlin said. He blamed the high cost of living on "high financing, excessive overheads, excessive profits, combinations organized thru the years just passed that now in different economic conditions are practicing their nefarious scheme to protect one and the other at the cost of the consumer."

Urging that a campaign of home-building be inaugurated at once he said:

"It can be done more expeditiously and cheaper now than in the recent past or in the near future."

Urges Publicity Campaign.
The federation was urged by John W. Hays, president of the union label trades department to conduct a publicity campaign involving the expenditure of nearly $2,500,000. He said such a campaign was necessary to gain public support of the trades union movement.

"Employers' organizations opposed to trade unions," said Mr. Hays, "have been using publicity of all kinds to destroy labor organizations. That publicity has not been combated by union effort as it should have been."

"Large sums of money have been expended to take public sentiment away from us. I believe the only way to direct it to right channels is thru the expenditure of a large sum of money to give the absolute facts to this large portion of the public that is being alienated from us."

The campaign outlined calls for the expenditure of $2,212,546 covering advertisements in 346 newspapers and the expenditure of $187,800 to cover advertising in eight national magazines.

Five cents a month from each member, Mr. Hays said, would cover the cost of the campaign.

One of the most hopeful things that has happened recently is the atmosphere at the railroad wage board hearing just held. The papers full of inflammatory remarks by representatives of the railroad managers and the brotherhoods. If such a spirit of "get together" can prevail for a while the threatening railroad trouble will evaporate quite rapidly.

Gov. Small says that the appropriations bill must be reduced and heads of departments were yesterday told to get out their pruning knives. The governor realizes that the taxpayer of the state wants something done in his behalf or else the burden will be almost more than he can bear. The trouble, as stated before, is that the average person or organization making demand for increased appropriations is at the same time quite unwilling to pay additional tax money.

The value that some cities place upon educational institutions is well illustrated in the case of Bloomington. In order to keep Wesleyan university from being removed to Springfield the people of Bloomington pledged a subscription of $650,000. They propose to raise that big sum in a week's time and a campaign is now in progress.

Since $220,000 was raised in one day, it is very certain that the goal will be reached. Springfield would have paid this sum and more to get Wesleyan.

A further postponement of a vote on the Lantz bill indicates that the advocates of the measure are losing ground. In the initial contest it was made to appear that farmers are unitedly for the measure. However, subsequent developments show differing opinions. In fact, there are decided evidences of changing sentiment toward the measure—an increasing belief that the farm organizations should try out their marketing plan before changing present methods in any very marked way.

The more one reads of the graft development in the building industry of Chicago, the greater the wonder that any building is done. The people down state who are always looking toward the big city for bargains should remember that the customer must pay both the legitimate and illegitimate cost of doing business in the big city.

So in many instances the down state merchant has the advantage over the Chicago business man and can really afford to sell to his clients at rates lower than those that apply in the metropolis.

Just about the soundest doctrine we have heard preached for many a day is that coming from Mr. Donlin, head of the building trades department of the American Federation of Labor. Mr. Donlin declares that the day for building tieups is past—that the union building trades workers must listen no longer to demagogues but must permit operations to proceed while they are arbitrating their differences.

Mr. Donlin is using sound sense and reason in that pronouncement. The stoppage of building work thru tieup strikes may benefit a few of the leaders but means the loss of dollars to the workers themselves and often real privation.

The situation in the Illinois general assembly just now is very tense. The condition has been accentuated by the result in the Chicago election. Some of the band wagon fellows have for that reason begun to assert themselves. There have been some changes in political lineups and the battle for control is being waged vigorously.

The situation will probably not grow any less complicated until after the closing hour of the legislature. No wonder, Gov. Small, who sensed the difficulties that might arise, declared weeks ago that there would be nothing doing about appointments until after the adjournment of the general assembly.

O'CONNELL TRIAL WELL UNDER WAY

State Concluded Presentation of Evidence Yesterday Afternoon—Witnesses for Defense Will Be Heard Today.

The taking of evidence continued yesterday in the trial of Timothy O'Connell, who is charged with the murder of Elwood Lent in September 1917 in Brown county. The state rested its case about 4 o'clock in the afternoon and court was adjourned until 9 o'clock this morning, when the defense will place witnesses on the stand.

Among the witnesses yesterday were D. G. Gordley, county clerk, Brown county; Charles Morrell, of LaGrange; C. J. Wynne and George Hulett of Beardstown; Dr. R. C. McGinn and E. W. Aber of Mt. Sterling; N. J. Woods of Versailles; John Whitehead and Mrs. Rosie Osborne of Brown county; Mrs. Marshall and Mrs. Pendergast of Beardstown.

Whitehead is one of the principal witnesses, as he is the man who was engaged with Elwood Lent in the building of a sorghum mill at the time of the shooting. Mrs. Osborne was another important witness as she was the housekeeper for Lent and was a witness to the shooting. At the former trial she testified that O'Connell after shooting Lent, pointed the gun toward her and threatened her if she advanced further. No testimony was given to this effect yesterday.

The testimony of Mrs. Pendergast brought forth some strenuous objections from the defense and only a part was permitted in the records. The purpose was to show that while Mrs. Pendergast and a companion were gathering blackberries on the O'Connell farm that O'Connell threatened them with a gun, saying that he had killed one—and would do so again for like offense. The effort of the prosecution was to show that the club that Lent is alleged to have picked up as he was walking toward O'Connell was in reality only a small branch or switch from a tree, and not of a size or weight with which he could have done any serious damage.

The case will probably be given to the jury some time today.

AGED SCOTT COUNTY RESIDENT PASSED AWAY

Death of Peter Obermeyer Came at Early Hour Thursday Morning—Resident of Scott County for Sixty-Seven Years—Other Winchester News Notes.

Winchester, June 9.—Life closed for one of the oldest residents of Scott county when Peter Obermeyer passed away at 5:45 o'clock Thursday morning at his home in Winchester. The deceased was born in Germany, June 1, 1834, and came to the United States in early life, settling first at New Orleans. He subsequently spent five years in different parts of the country and then located in Scott county, where he has been a resident for about sixty-seven years.

Until very recently Mr. Obermeyer had retained his physical strength and he was remarkably active for one who had reached such unusual age.

The deceased was united in marriage to Miss Lucida E. Beasley at Winchester on March 20, 1854, and thru all the intervening years they have maintained a Scott county home where peace and hospitality reigned.

Mrs. Obermeyer and the following children survive: Mrs. Mary J. Owens, Litchfield; William F. Obermeyer, Chicago; Mrs. Belle Dugham, Denver; Charles E. Obermeyer, Chicago; Mrs. H. A. McKean Springfield; Anton B. Obermeyer, Chicago; Dr. A. E. Obermeyer, Arcadia, and R. D. Obermeyer, Kansas City. Two children preceded their father in death, J. A. Obermeyer of Jacksonville, and Mrs. A. C. Smith of Winchester.

The deceased also had four sisters and one brother, all residents of Germany but now deceased.

In the early days of the Civil war the deceased enlisted with the Union forces and served during the entire war period.

For seventy years Mr. Obermeyer had membership in the Baptist church of Winchester and was active in the work of the church. He was a man of high ideals and exemplary life and was identified with every movement for the betterment of his home community and country. He ranked as one of the oldest Old Fellows and Masons in the state, and was for many years identified with the local post, G. A. R.

For a long period Mr. Obermeyer followed the occupation of contractor in a successful way, but retired from active business a number of years ago.

The funeral will be held Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Winchester Baptist church, with Rev. W. H. Breach of Danville in charge of the service.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

The 210 local H. S. students who suggested that the Chamber of Commerce promote a new Y. M. C. A. building was real encouragement to the local board of directors. It certainly showed the sentiment of the high school students.

When the people of the community are ready to back a new building for the Jacksonville Y. M. C. A., then the directors are ready to do their full share.

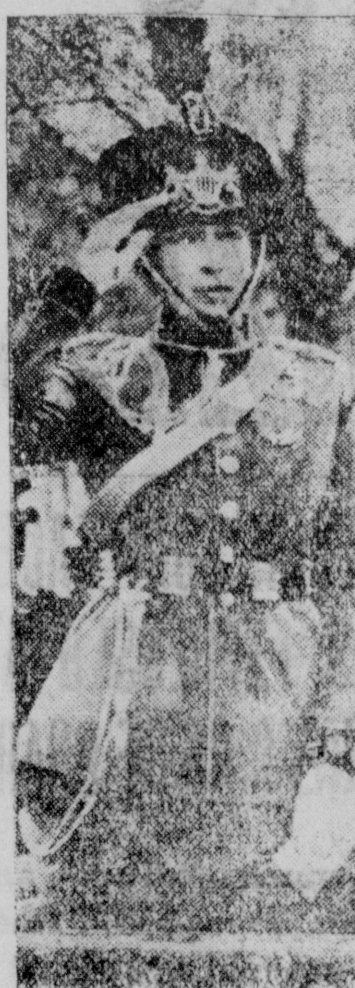

The general business conditions within the state have not changed very much since January 1st, but the work of the Young Men's Christian association has gone forward conservatively and constructively. Membership has materially increased and almost every association has closed the year without a deficit. Good work.

One of the most unusual campaigns promoted in the state in recent years was the campaign for current expense funds promoted by the board of directors of the East St. Louis association. A five day campaign for $25,000 was brought to a successful conclusion at the end of the fourth day, with more than $26,000 secured. This demonstration of community interest is pointing the way to a much needed central building.

The campaign for $17,500 held recently at Bloomington for deficit and current budget purposes closed with $19,200. This campaign included $1,000 as Bloomington's part in the work of the state association.

A most interesting financial campaign for current expense has just been completed at the University of Illinois, where subscriptions needed to the extent of $7,500 were covered in cash.

LAST RITES SAID FOR H. G. KEPLINGER

Funeral of Franklin Banker Held Thursday Afternoon—Civil War Veterans Honorary Bearers.

Franklin, June 9.—Funeral services for Hardin G. Keplinger were held from the M. E. church this afternoon. The church was completely filled with friends who had gathered to pay a last tribute of respect to his memory. Services were in charge of the Rev. Mr. Sherman who delivered an impressive discourse, his text being, "A Good Man is Favored of the Lord."

The minister emphasized the fact that the deceased was a good man in every sense of the term. His early war record was recalled, Mr. Keplinger having left college to enlist in the early days of the Civil war and serving all thru that long conflict.

The minister characterized the deceased as a public benefactor and said that many were the young men he had helped in a substantial way in getting a start in life. He stated that the deceased was faithful in all the relations of life and said that his devotion to the memory of his wife was most beautiful. The patriotism of the deceased was referred to as one of his strongest characteristics. His love for the flag was noted on every occasion when the national emblem was displayed.

Music was furnished by Mrs. Martin Anderson, Luther Wiley and Edgar Eador. The many beautiful flowers were cared for by Miss Lou Duncan, Miss Grace Hill, Miss Maude Criswell and Mrs. J. E. Sinclair.

Members of Wadley Lodge A. F. and A. M. of Franklin with Henry Wiley as Worshipful Master had charge at the grave, carrying out the funeral ritual of the order.

Funeral was in Franklin cemetery the active bearers being, O. F. Buffe, William Hill, W. C. Calhoun, Louis Roberts, A. H. Wright and Henry Slack.

The honorary bearers were all civil war veterans and were: E. J. Jolly, William Haynes, James Rountree, John B. Seymour, Richard Seymour, John Criswell, Holland Wemple and John West Luttrell.

ABOUT LAKE FISHING

The park board as felt obliged to issue an order regarding fishing in the two lakes south of the city. A good many persons find real pleasure in fishing in those bodies of water and occasionally a real addition to the household supplies is made. Not long since a man took from Nichols Park lake a catfish that dressed three and a half pounds which is the largest catch of which the Journal has heard.

It is to furnish pleasure for the greatest number that the park board is striving and all good citizens are urged to aid in carrying out the orders issued.

EXPECTED THAT AN AGREEMENT WILL BE REACHED WITH MEXICO

Constitutional Amendment Can Come Only Through Senate Action

(By The Associated Press)

MEXICO CITY, June 9.—Mexico is prepared to agree to the suggestions contained in the memorandum brought from Washington by Charge d' Affaires Summerlin after certain modifications are made by the United States, which it is confidentially expected will be made and the relations between the two nations doubtless will be most cordial, according to a statement today by secretary of foreign relations Pani to the publishers of the newspapers in Mexico City.

The modifications referred to pertain to amendments of the Mexican constitution which cannot be effected by presidential decree but must come as a result of action by the senate, the newspaper men were informed.

Burden of Oregon's Note. They were shown all the communications which have passed between Washington and Mexico City including President Oregon's latest answer to Secretary Hughes' note. The burden of Oregon's note was declared to be for forbearance on the part of the United States until its suggestions can be carried out in a legal manner.

One suggestion made in the American memorandum was for a claims committee and according to information of The Associated Press correspondent Senor Pani asserted that President Oregon readily had agreed on this point and that within a few days he would promulgate a decree authorizing the establishment of this commission as far as Mexico is concerned and also designate its personnel.

This afternoon's conference between Senor Pani and the news paper men was the result of a virtual demand by the publishers of Mexico City to be enlightened on the true state of affairs existing between Mexico and the United States.

Senor Pani allowed them to read all communications which have passed between the two governments and also gave them a full explanation of every move the Mexican government had made.

PLEADS FOR BUYING OF FOREIGN SECURITIES

CHICAGO, June 9.—Pleading for American buying of foreign securities as a means of developing trade, John S. Drum, president of the American Bankers' Association told the convention of the Illinois Bankers' Association today that the greatest problem now faced by business is what to do with excess products.

"We must find new markets," he said, "if we are to avoid recurrent depression. Europe has not the money to buy. We must follow the lead of England, France, Holland and Germany after other great wars and enable other countries to prosper. This can only be done by purchasing foreign securities."

S. M. Morgan of St. Louis said the use of every form of advertising by financial institutions had resulted in a decided increase in efficiency.

William C. White of Peoria, president, gave credit in his opening address to the federal reserve act for avoiding a financial panic and said the end of the five period of business depression was in sight.

RUMORS OF ATTEMPT TO RESTORE DYNASTY

Hints That Boy Emperor Held Captive in Palace May Be Placed on Throne in Attempt to Restore Manchu Monarchy.

Tien Tsin.—Rumors of another attempt to restore the Manchu monarchy by placing the captive boy emperor Hsuan Tung on the throne are circulating in the inner circles of this center of Oriental statecraft. Hints come from unknown sources that such a move is to be made within the next two months.

Speculation on this possibility provides one of the most fascinating subjects of conversation among the Chinese as well as among the foreigners. Here is the stage and the throneless boy emperor a star character for the development of a plot that may yet focus the world's attention.

Anything is possible in Chinese politics for upon Peking centers not only the jarring ambitions of Chinese militarists and politicians but a large proportion of all the diplomacy of the Orient.

Like Arabian Nights Tale

The story of Hsuan Tung is like a tale of the Arabian Nights. Though he is still a boy of fifteen years he has twice been proclaimed emperor and twice has abdicated. When he was less than two years old he was made emperor by edict of the dying empress dowager in 1908. With his father, Prince Ching as regent, the infant was nominal ruler over 400,000,000 people for a little more than three years. Then came the republic with a president, Yuan Shih-kai, and the boy still an emperor, retired to captivity within the walls of the Forbidden City.

There he remained for five years until in 1917, when he was yet only 11 years old, he forcibly was restored to his throne by a coup d'etat of General Chang Hsun who, it has been charged, was the agent of a German plot to prevent the Chinese republic from taking a hostile attitude toward Germany in the war. Another purpose of the conspiracy is said to have been to stop the sending of Chinese coolies to Europe to relieve the French workers so that they could be put on the fighting line.

This time the boy emperor's reign was brief. It lasted less than a week and again he went back to the palace of his forefathers a prisoner, and there he has remained surrounded by 3,000 or 4,000 of the Manchu adherents, princes, eunuchs and whispering old women who long and probably plot for the time when the little "Son of Heaven" shall again ascend the dragon throne.

To support him and his household of Manchus, titled and otherwise, the Chinese republic pays an annual allowance of from $3,000,000 to $4,000,000 in silver and thus within the heart of the capital city of the Chinese republic exists a strange group which may at any moment become the prey of ambitious military leaders or the fulcrum of which they may raise themselves to power.

Leads Secluded Life

The boy, still possessed of the title of emperor, leads a secluded life. He is not permitted to pass beyond the walls of the Forbidden City though his heart longs for travel to the western countries of whose strange sights and customs he has learned from his tutors, three Chinese and one English, the latter R. F. Johnston, a scholar and author.

Hsuan Tung is described by those who come in contact with him as a bright youth of affable manners, studious and interested in the outside world and its political movements. With the aid of his tutors he kept in touch with the progress of the peace conference at Paris and the changes on the world's map which ensued.

Naturally, the Chinese classics are his chief study but he also has learned English and derives delight from his skill in penmanship. He is deferential to his tutors and strictly observes the rules of imperial conduct they have taught him.

Hsuan Tung is carried in his yellow sedan chair by 20 attendants to the palace of Heavenly Purity where his English tutor gives him lessons. He loves exercise but he has little chance to gratify his wish within the limits of the palace grounds. If he goes to ride he must straddle a pony led at a slow pace about the court yard. Though he longs to see the distant parts of the world he is not even allowed to rowing on the lake about the summer palace. To the youth of America accustomed to its freedom his position would be intolerable. Yet his disposition remains unspoiled.

Hsuan Tung has reached the age when the question of his marriage is looming up. When Yuan Shih-kai became first president of the Chinese republic it was reported that the boy emperor had become betrothed to the president's daughter to promote a plan to restore a monarchical government with Yuan as emperor. Not long ago it was reported that he was engaged to marry the daughter of the present president, Hsu Shih-chang. It is said here the girl is being educated in the United States. This would be in conformity with the Chinese fashion of arranging marriages between children.

CANTON PREPARES TO ENTERTAIN EAGLES

State Convention Will Be Held in That City June 14 to 17—Big Parade Is Feature of Festivities.

Canton, Ill.—The fifteenth annual convention of the Illinois State Aerie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles opens in Canton on June 14 and continues for three days. Because of the large growth of the aeries the last year it is expected this will be the largest state convention in the history of the Illinois aerie.

This is the first convention of the size that has been entertained in Canton. The local committees are planning to make a record in entertainment.

Two hundred delegates will attend from the nearly 100 Illinois aeries. Many of the larger cities are planning to send delegations in addition to the official delegates. Pekin, Peoria, Springfield, Moline, East Moline, Rock Island, Galesburg and Bloomington are arranging for special trains, it is announced. Peoria, Springfield, Rock Island and Bloomington have signified willingness to attend with bands.

The big feature other than entertainment of the 5,000 visitors anticipated will be election of officers on Thursday and selection of the next convention city. The program opens Tuesday morning with F. F. Johnson, president of the Canton aerie, in the chair. Welcome to the delegates will be extended by Dr. J. E. Bradley, mayor of Canton, with response by the state president of the Eagles, M. J. McCabe, of Chicago. The morning session will close with an address by Col. B. M. Chipfield, of Canton.

The afternoon will be taken up with a business meeting and sightseeing tours. A civic-industrial-fraternal parade will take place in the evening. The principal address of convention will be given on the first day by A. B. Duncan, of St. Joseph, Mo., a representative of the national Eagles organization.

Wednesday will be occupied by trips thru local coal mines and the big plow works. The evening program includes band concerts and a fireworks display.

On Thursday the business sessions will be closed and officers elected. In the afternoon an automobile trip will be made to the Illinois river twelve miles distant. Opening with a band concert at 7:30 in the evening the Mardi Gras and barbecue at Van Windle lake, closing with a ball at the Van Windle lake pavilion.

THE VAST PURCHASES OF THE RAILWAYS

The Railway Age publishes statistics in an editorial in its current issue showing that the total expenditures of the Class I railways, exclusive of switching and terminal companies, for fuel, materials and supplies in 1920 amounted to approximately $2,200,000,000. "The total amounts spent by all the railways of the United States for these things," it says, "were substantially larger than this, because this figure includes nothing for Class 2 and 3 railways or the switching and terminal companies, which together operate about 20,000 miles of line. Statistics compiled by the Bureau of Railway Economics make it practicable to state more definitely and in more detail what the purchases of the railways in a year are than has ever been the case before."

"It should hardly be necessary to do more than give these figures to show how important to the general business of the United States are the purchases made by the railroads and the effects upon general business which are inevitably produced by wide fluctuations in their amounts. When the railways are financially able to make purchases on the scale required, for the adequate maintenance and development of their properties they are the largest market for some of the largest industries of the country, especially those of coal mining, iron and steel and lumber manufacturing. On the other hand when, as has been the case within recent months, it is necessary for the railways to drastically reduce their purchases of all kinds and practically to suspend buying of materials and supplies, the adverse effect produced upon general business is tremendous. It will be an auspicious day for the general business of the country when the railroads' financial position improves enough to enable their purchases and stores departments to resume buying and handling fuel, materials and supplies in normal quantities."

"In the year 1920 the expenditures of the Class I railways, exclusive of switching and terminal companies, for fuel was $672,891,964. They charged to operating expenses $145,252,339 for retirements and depreciation and $1,063,763,990 for materials, supplies and miscellaneous. If we assume that one-half of their capital expenditures is made for materials, the outlay for materials charged to capital account were over $285,000,000. This makes a total for Class I railways, exclusive of switching and terminal companies, of approximately $2,167,000,000 which was spent in 1920 for fuel, materials and supplies.

"How greatly the expenses of the railways, other than those for labor, have increased is indicated by a comparison of these figures with those for the year 1916. In that year the same railways paid only $250,544,862 for fuel. The charges to depreciation and retirements which in the long run represent materials and supplies, and their direct expenditures for materials and supplies amounted together to $567,101,300. The foregoing expenses were all chargeable to operation. The expenditures for materials used in improvements were about $209,100,000, making the total expenditures for fuel, materials and supplies about $1,027,000,000. This compares with the $2,167,000,000 of 1920 and shows there was an increase in these items in four years of 111 per cent."

DEMPSEY ASKS ABOUT CARPENTIER'S STYLE

Champion Displays Curiosity as to Style His Opponent Uses—Takes Strenuous Workout.

Atlantic City, N. J., June 9.—Jack Dempsey displayed his curiosity for the first time today to learn the fighting style of Georges Carpentier. Dempsey sought this first hand information from a newspaper correspondent, an old time friend, who just arrived from a week's stay in the French boxer's camp. He wanted to know if Carpentier fought from a crouch or hit from a standing up position and the position from which he started the dangerous right hand punch.

When told that Carpentier fought from a standing position Dempsey asked: "Is he hard to hit, if I can hit him, I can lick him." Dempsey was told that Carpentier was a sharp, accurate boxer and was liable to whip anybody he could reach with the first punch. The champion remarked that he had plenty of speed himself and was hitting with greater force than ever.

Dempsey's workout was no different from yesterday, although he fought the heavy bag from crouch instead of a standing position. Dempsey worked at top speed for 45 minutes, drubbing the punching bag for four rounds, the heavy bag for four and two of shadow boxing.

Jack Carley, regarded as Carpentier's American representative, arrived at camp just as Dempsey was finishing his workout. Carley smilingly announced himself as a "spy" for the Carpentier camp, but did not have an opportunity to see Dempsey in action.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Williamson of Alton, are visiting Mr. Williamson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Williamson of Chicago. Mr. Williamson was at one time in the employ of Brady Brothers of this city.

Fred Tholen and family of the southeast part of the county came to town yesterday.

The Index will hook up with the strong Beardstown Grays at South Side park Sunday afternoon. The Grays always have a strong lineup and in 1919 they played the Index a twelve inning game, the locals finally winning by a score of 5 to 4.

The Index looked like they had regained their stride last Sunday and should be able to put the remaining games of the schedule on the right side of the ledger.

Manager Smith stated last night that the attendance had not been up to the standard any time this year. It costs a great deal more to run a ball team than it did a few years ago. Balls, bats and uniforms, in fact everything pertaining to the game is high. The players also are being paid more money.

If the attendance does not increase between now and the first of July the Index will take to the road. Smith has been offered games in Roadhouse, White Hall, Rushville, Beardstown, Hamlet and Quincy and will be forced to play out of town if the attendance does not improve.

Miller Weir expected to go to Chicago last night at attend the annual meeting of the State Bankers' Association. He goes in the capacity of consulting state bank examiner.

THE VICTIM IS LARRY WILLIAMS
Meaning, of course, that Larry Williams is here shown boxing with Jack Dempsey, in public training at Atlantic City.

PICNIC THURSDAY AT HOME NEAR ALEXANDER

About eighty-five members and friends of the Church of the Visitation of Alexander enjoyed a picnic Thursday at their home of Mr. and Mrs. John Luby three miles east of Alexander. The picnic was held beneath the beautiful shade trees on the lawn at the Luby home and was an occasion long to be remembered by those present.

The picnic was arranged by the ladies of the Altar society and will probably be an annual affair. At the noon hour an elaborate dinner was spread upon the grass and the good things provided were enjoyed to the utmost. The afternoon hours were spent in a very pleasant way with croquet and various other games and contests. It was late in the afternoon before the merry-makers started for their homes with many pleasant recollections of the day.

UNCLE SAM WILL GET GOOD PLUM FROM FIGHT

Government's Share from Fight Will Be $254,604. In Addition to This Will Be An Amusement Tax of Probably $100,000 and Tax on Promoter Rickard's Share.

New York, June 9.—Uncle Sam never drew on a boxing glove in his life, but he'll make more money than Jack Dempsey, Georges Carpentier or Tex Rickard on July 2.

Figures which will doubtless bring sleepless nights to Dempsey's manager, Jack Kearns, and cause Francois Descamps, manager of Carpentier, more worry than a newspaper photographer were quoted today by internal revenue officials.

Dempsey's income tax for $200,000, approximately what he will receive for the battle, will amount to $161,270. Carpentier's toll, when exemptions for his wife and child are subtracted, will total a modest $93,334.

That makes the score only the division of the purse read: United States government, $254,604; boxers, $245,396. Interesting news to Mr. Average American citizen, who according to the revenue officials pays a tax on an annual income between $5,000 and $6,000.

The marked difference between the taxes of the boxers is due to the surtax on the difference between $300,000 and $200,000. Dempsey possesses an advantage in that he will have an entire year in which to pay, in quarterly installments, the first payment due March 15, 1922. Carpentier, before he sails, must pay every dollar.

Government profits include the ten per cent amusement tax exacted by federal authorities which will amount to approximately $100,000. The state of New Jersey will exact a like sum.

Promoter Tex Rickard, whose profits may be $100,000, will be taxed an amount which will bring the total government revenue to considerably more than a half million dollars.

KNOCKDOWN GREATLY OVER RATED IN FIGHT

Many Authorities Agree That Unlucky Fighter Is Seriously Hurt By Blow No Consideration Should Be Given It.

Milwaukee, Wis.—The value of a knockdown in a prize fight is greatly over-rated by the average person and at times should be virtually no consideration in deciding the winner, according to several leaders in the fight game in the central west.

In determining the part a knockdown should play in the decision the ultimate and not the immediate effect of the blow is what should be considered, according to Judge A. J. Hidding, father of Wisconsin's boxing law. If a man comes back strongly after being floored, the knockdown amounts to little. Judge Hidding believes Ray Cannon, Jack Dempsey's financial representative; Tom Larkin, director of the Milwaukee Athletic club; Tom Andrews, Milwaukee promoter, and others agree with Judge Hidding that a knockdown should count for little unless the fighter is seriously hurt by the blow.

"Under modern interpretation of boxing and fighting it appears as though a knockdown carries considerable weight; under the old rules on which the present rules were molded a knockdown entitled the boxer to that round," said Judge Hidding. "We have no set rules today and leave too much to personal opinion. If a man out-scores in the succeeding round, and shows no ill effect of the knockdown, he should be given that round; also the condition of the men at the close of the bout must and should be taken into consideration."

Tom Larkin claims that a knockdown only carries the round and should not be extended further and Tom Andrews who has followed boxing since the days of John L. Sullivan, also claims that injustice is done the fallen boxer if the recording of a knockdown is carried further than one round.

"If the boxer seems to suffer no ill effects and out-scores his rival in the next session, he is entitled to that round," said Andrews. "In case he is badly hurt, then matters will take care of themselves anyway; but this idea of crediting round after round to a man when he is being out-pointed, due to the fact that he is connected with one punch on the chin, is not in accordance with good fight logic. Our rules specifically call for boxing matches."

Ray Cannon was more strenuous in his assertion that one round was sufficient.

DR. CAPPS GIVEN FAREWELL DINNER

American Colony at Notable Function Expressed Appreciation of His Services as American Minister to Greece.

Dr. Edward Capps and the members of his family who are returning to the U. S. from Athens, sailed on the Canada of the Fabre line May 24 and the boat schedule should land them in New York this week.

Dr. Capps in a recent letter to his brother-in-law, Ralph I. Dunlap, mentioned some personal facts and then referred to the farewell dinner that the American colony gave in his honor. There were sixty-five persons present, including the French and British ministers. The testimonial dinner was held at the Hotel Grande Bretagne in Athens, Saturday, May 27, with Prof. H. B. Hill, director of the American Archaeological school serving as chairman.

Prominent Men Present.
The honorary guests were His Excellency Mr. Robert de Billy, minister plenipotentiary of France; His Excellency Earl Granville, minister plenipotentiary of Great Britain; Lady Granville and Mrs. Edward Capps. The musical program in connection with the dinner was a great feature, as it was provided by artists of the Royal Greet Opera Co. of Athens.

Among the members of the colony who tendered the dinner were John G. Erhart, American consul; William P. George, American vice consul; E. H. Ganley, U. S. shipping board; James A. Mills, Associated Press of America; A. A. Nelms, American Young Men's Christian association; L. R. Owen, Standard Oil Co., New York; John Skelton Williams Jr., American vice consul.

The guests present as formal expression of approval of the services of Dr. Capps as American minister to Greece adopted the following appreciation:

"The American Colony in Athens, Greece, comprising representatives of the leading American commercial firms, steamship corporations, newspapers, relief and welfare organizations, government departments and consular services, desire here to record an expression of their high appreciation and admiration of your services as American minister to Greece, and to pay you a personal tribute for your never failing spirit of courtesy, helpfulness and accommodation to those seeking your counsel and support.

"By your singular executive capacity, your high qualities of statesmanship, your fidelity to American interests, your great sense of fairness, and your intense devotion and patriotism, you have set a high standard in American diplomacy and have won the hearty esteem and friendship not only of every American in Greece but of all your allied colleagues and official associates.

"The Americans gathered to-night at this testimonial banquet as well as their honorary guests, the ministers of France, Great Britain and Italy, bid you a regretful and affectionate farewell from the scene of your official duties and wish you Godspeed and the highest degree of success and personal welfare in your new activities.

Athens, May 7, 1921."

The next meeting of the club will be held July 14, at the home of Mrs. F. O. Graves.

PROGRAM OF WORK AGAIN THE THEME

The third of the program of work conferences held under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce was held at the Pacific hotel last night, with 35 men in attendance. Fletcher Hopper presided and then Mr. Henley, installation secretary for the American City Bureau, explained the plan of having members answer questions, giving their views as to the most important things to be done in Jacksonville as affecting their own business and the public welfare.

Mr. Henley said that about 135 men had attended the supper conferences and that all other members would receive cards by mail and so have the opportunity of expressing their views on the work program.

The company then was divided into two conference groups. Fletcher Hopper and J. W. Walton serving as chairmen.

Some of the needs suggested were practically the same as those presented at previous conferences. Among the suggestions made were the following:

Public rest room.
Better parking facilities.
Special juvenile court.
Consider railroad problems in their various phases.
Urge the C. B. & Q. to make this a division point.
Increase in social settlement work.
A reduction in taxes.
Boulevard lights on East State street.
Persuading people to buy only at home.
Continuous boosting.
A union passenger station.
Development of playgrounds.
Completion of the filtration plant.
Improvement of roads entering the city.
Building of a convention hall.
Developing the colleges.
The suggestion most often made was the need of a new hotel building.

MANY ENJOY MAYOR BERGER'S HOSPITALITY

Trustees, Officers, Members of Passavant Hospital Staff and Friends Spend Day at Meredosta —Excursion and Fish Fry Features.

The trustees, officers and members of the Passavant hospital staff and friends who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Berger on a boat excursion and fish fry at Meredosta yesterday accounted the day one of the finest outings that they could ask for. The day was ideal, the roads good, the boat fine and the fish fried as only Meredosta folk can fry it.

The Jacksonville party left here in autos at noon and drove to Meredosta. There they assembled in the gospel tent where a short program was held. A Sunday school orchestra from Mt. Sterling rendered several selections, after which the audience sang "America." Rev. J. W. Kettie, of Columbus, pronounced the invocation. Miss Gwendolyn Berger, daughter of the Mayor, played a piano solo.

Mayor Berger made a brief speech in which he made everyone feel that the town was theirs for the day and then asked Miss Verner, superintendent of Passavant hospital, to come to the platform where he handed on her the mayor's badge and presented her with the keys to the city and to the jail. (These keys can no doubt be seen in Miss Verner's office at Passavant hospital.) Miss Verner expressed the appreciation of the visitors for the outing.

Following this the orchestra played another number and then Mayor Berger introduced to the visitors, Dr. H. H. Hammond, Dr. F. A. Neville, S. F. Barnett, C. P. Hedrick and Fred Payne, business men of Meredosta.

The last speaker was A. A. Curry, president of the board of trustees of Passavant hospital. He spoke of the widening influence of the hospital and the co-operation of the country outside of Jacksonville in supporting it.

Adopt Rules for the Day.

Mayor Berger then announced that he had a set of "Rules for the Day," which he had read three times, passed and signed. Rev. Walter Spoonst moved that they be adopted by the assembly, and his motion carried.

1. A fine of fifty cents for a sour look.

2. A fine of twenty-five cents for looking as if one had lost his last friend.

3. A fine of one dollar for complaining about the weather.

4. A fine of twenty-five cents for sitting alone and looking as if you do not care to be spoken to.

5. For the benefit of the ladies a fine of twenty-five cents for smoking above the boiler deck.

6. A fine of $5.00 and no supper for anyone falling overboard.

These fines were to be paid to Miss Verner and used for the good of the hospital. The following officers were appointed to carry out the rules.

Judge—H. J. Rodgers.

Marshal—C. P. Hedrick.

Prosecuting attorney—J. J. Reeve.

Trier of appeals—Miss Verner. From the time Dr. Black was arrested and fined for smoking until the end of the trip the Judge found all cases that were brought before him guilty and the trier of appeals refused all rehearings. A total of $5.30 was collected. Rev. Walter Spoonst was reported delinquent, not having paid his fine.

The excursion was on the Julia Belle Swain in charge of Captain and Mrs. Verne Swain. Certainly the river trip was a pleasure for everyone. The boat orchestra furnished music and the crowd enjoyed the dance. One nurse announced that this was the first time in thirty years that she had danced. The excursion went to the government locks where a landing was made and a chance given every one to look over that place.

On the return to Meredosta 225 sat down to a real Meredosta fish fry. The fry was held in the square. Mr. Berger had prepared 125 pounds of fish and the crowd managed to get away with all of it. Many were the compliments passed on the cook who fried the fish. The ladies of the M. E. church aided in serving.

Car loads of happy and satisfied people came back to Jacksonville during the early evening.

TAPS SOUNDED FOR JAMES O. HAMILTON

Pioneer Resident Passed Away
Thursday Morning—Came to Morgan County With Parents in 1834.

James O. Hamilton, a resident of the county for many years, died at Passavant hospital at 6 o'clock Thursday morning. Mr. Hamilton had been in failing health for some time and for several days his condition had been regarded as critical.

Decedent was the son of Rev. John C. and Sarah Baldwin Smith Hamilton and was born in Cynthia, Ky., February 20, 1829, and at the time of death was over 92 years of age.

When he was five years of age his parents removed to Illinois first settling in Jacksonville where after a brief residence they moved to the vicinity of Pisgah where his father purchased 800 acres of land and entered into farming and stock raising on a large scale.

The father also was prominent as a minister and was a co-worker of Peter Cartwright, Peter Akers, W. D. Trotter and other great lights of those early days.

James O. grew to manhood in Morgan county and followed the occupation of farming. When gold was discovered in California, like many others he got the gold fever and with several companions made up a party to go to the new Eldorado. That was in 1851 when Mr. Hamilton was 22 years of age. The trip was made overland with oxen and they met with many hazardous adventures but arrived safely. He returned to Illinois two years later by way of the Isthmus.

He then made up another party which included Thomas Van Winkle, James Graham and several others and they started to California with a drove of cattle. They did not meet with much success as the Indians stampeded some of the cattle and stole their horses. However, they reached California with sixty cattle. Mr. Hamilton returned to Illinois in 1859.

April 4, 1861, Mr. Hamilton was united in marriage to Margaret E. Buckingham, a sister of Mrs. George Glenn, the Rev. W. J. Rutledge performing the ceremony. She preceded him in death in 1893.

He is survived by the following children: William T. Hamilton, Blandinsville, Ill.; Mrs. George S. Lewis, Des Moines, Iowa; Mrs. E. G. Caldwell, Mrs. Maria Frances Hall; Miss Louise Hamilton, Jacksonville; John B. Hamilton, Charles K. Hamilton, Chatham; Henry Hamilton, Loomis; Mrs. James N. Fife, Waverly. One daughter, Mrs. William Caldwell of Concord, preceded him in death.

He also leaves fourteen grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

When the Civil war started Mr. Hamilton enlisted in the 101st Illinois Infantry and tho sick much of the time served his country faithfully.

At the close of the war he again returned to Morgan county and was for a time a member of the grocery firm of Buckingham & Hamilton. Mr. Hamilton was postmaster of Jacksonville for one term. He moved to Sangamon county where he resided for 25 years, returning to Jacksonville in 1913.

In the closing years of his life Mr. Hamilton has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. E. G. Caldwell and where he has had the loving care of his three daughters.

Mr. Hamilton was a man of sterling character. He was noted for his uprightness and integrity and his life was such that he commanded the respect of all in the community in which he had spent so many years.

The remains are now at the Caldwell home, on West College avenue where friends may call and view them. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

CAUSE OF FORMER EMPEROR STRONGER

Politicians Seem to Think His Effort to Regain Throne Has Strengthened His Cause.

BUDAPEST — By The Associated Press.—The attempt of former Emperor Charles to retake his throne as King of Hungary has strengthened the position of his party here, in the opinion of well-informed politicians. Recent events in the National Assembly of Hungary seem to justify that claim.

When Charles left Hungary after his failure to regain his crown, the camp of the anti-Hapsburg deputies was clamoring for the scalps of those who participated in the abortive coup or who supported it. But their voices quickly grew fainter and they forgot to move for the punishment of the plotters for Charles' restoration. The leader of the party of small landowners, Stephen Szabo de Nagatad, minister of agriculture, advised moderation.

The followers of Charles grow bold and loud. They abused the anti-Hapsburgs as cowardly traitors for driving away the lawful sovereign in obedience to the command of the Czechs and Jugoslavs.

The majority of the stormy incidents which have since taken place in the House of Deputies was provoked by the Charles' supporters, notably by George Ezmechanyi, chairman of the Awakening Hungarians and the erstwhile Minister, Begiczky, who ostentatiously remained sitting when the House rose and cheered Admiral Horthy, the Regent, for his patriotic behavior during Charles' attempt to win back his crown.

The partisans of Charles use every opportunity to canvas for the dynasty. In a sitting a few days ago Count Julian Andrássy praised his courage and declared the King was justified in fleeing from Hungary in the turbulent autumn days of 1918 because the revolutionaries attempted his life and the life of his children. Andrássy's speech was frequently interrupted by cries of "long live the King."

The conviction is gaining ground that an appeal must be made to the nation by issuing a writ for new elections.

Edward Balsley was up to the city from Winchester yesterday.

Miss Winifred Ashley represented Bluffs in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Anna Meyer and daughter Mrs. Leonore Smith were down from Havana yesterday to visit Mrs. Joanna Meyer who is ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Graham on South Prairie street. Mrs. Meyers and her visitor were twin sisters and married brothers.

FARMER COULDN'T WORK ANY LONGER

Was So Run Down He Couldn't
Lift Peck of Potatoes Before
He Began Taking Tanlac.

"I was in such a terrible condition that I never expected to see another well day, but thanks to Tanlac I'm now feeling as well as I ever did in my life and there's not a more grateful man living than I am," said Herman Rethe, a well known farmer of R. F. D. No. 3, Heyworth, Ill.

"For more than seven years I was in mighty bad health, and my condition kept getting worse until I was forced to quit work altogether. My appetite was so poor that for years wasn't able to enjoy a good meal, and nothing I did eat seemed to agree with me. I always had a terrible depressed feeling and burning sensation in my stomach and such terrible blinding, dizzy spells that I could hardly see. My back hurt me so bad that I couldn't stoop over without such awful pain that I would almost fall, and I couldn't have lifted a peck of potatoes to save my life.

"I read where a man whom I knew had been wonderfully helped by Tanlac and that's what led me to try it. Why, it's worth a good farm to be able to sit down and enjoy a big, hearty meal like I do now, and everything agrees with me so well that my stomach never troubles me a particle.

"My kidneys don't bother me any more and my back is entirely free from pain. At night I sleep like a log and I've so completely regained my strength and health that I can do a big day's work and enjoy it."—Adv.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

The Chinch Bug Situation—If any one is inclined to belittle the chinch bug menace, he ought to go west of Arcadia and inspect some of the wheat fields. The bugs are beginning to move from the wheat into the corn and it is certainly a man's size job to attempt to hold them back, and kill them by means of post hole traps. With the corn as small as it is the bugs are going to "take it in spite of any efforts. Where the danger is as great as it is in this locality, it is advisable to drill in cowpeas or soybeans next to the wheat and establish the fighting line farther out. Chinch bugs will not attack legumes.

Thrashing Prices and Harvest Wages in Sangamon—At a representative gathering of farmers at the Sangamon county farm bureau recently they decided that three and six cents were fair prices for thrashing oats and wheat and that three dollars per day should be offered to the first class farm hands, who were sent from the farm bureau office to the harvest fields. The views of this gathering seem to be parallel with that of the meeting held here on July 8th.

Tipburn in Potatoes—As previously stated this is caused by the potato leaf hopper and can be controlled by spraying thoroly by Bordeaux mixture. It will not be sufficient to dust the powdered mixture on the plant. It must be applied as a solution. It will require at least two sprayings to control tipburn.

Sweet Clover for Nitrate Production—When plowed under green for corn, sweet clover offers the most promising indications that the problem of supplying a cheap source of available nitrogen (nitrate), for farm crops can be solved. Bulletin 233 of the Illinois Agricultural Experiment Station just issued sets forth the merits of sweet clover in its ability to conserve the nitrate of the soil, to add nitrogen to the soil, and by its rapid decomposition, when plowed under, to produce nitrate in ample amounts and at the proper time for the corn crop. Results obtained from fields in northern, central and southern Illinois, and representing the brown silt loam and the gray silt loam, on tight clay, where sweet clover seeded in wheat has been plowed under in the spring of the second year for corn, are presented showing the influence of this practice on the nitrate content of the soil.

Corn occupied all the plots concerned in the study. The large nitrate requirement of this crop made it desirable to study the effect of the sweet clover treatment in its presence. It was found that the plots on which sweet clover was growing in the spring contained more nitrate than untreated soil or manured soil and that within three or four weeks after the sweet clover was plowed under, the nitrate content of the soil was in most cases doubled and continued to increase in spite of the fact that the corn was utilizing considerable nitrate on these plots. The critical period in the growth of corn usually occurs between June 5 and July 15, when the greatest demand for nitrate occurs. It is shown by the study that sweet clover may be relied upon to furnish sufficient nitrate nitrogen for the corn crop, and that it properly meets the critical feeding period above mentioned. The results were as outstanding on gray silt loam as on the brown silt loam.

The height, green weight, dry weight and nitrogen content of the sweet clover at about the time it was plowed for corn also reported in connection with these studies. From the data on the nitrate content of the soil and the nitrogen content of the sweet clover tops, it is clear that a material addition of nitrogen was made to the soil, from the air, thru the growing of the clover.

The information contained in this bulletin deals directly with a vital factor in crop production and proves the value of green sweet clover as a cheap source of available nitrogen, for corn. It emphasizes the importance of this crop in well planned systems of soil improvement.

Consider Your Clothes

HAVE you ever stopped to think of the part petroleum plays in converting raw material into the fabrics which are used to make your suit of clothes? From the wool on a sheep's back to the clothes on your back is a long journey and petroleum shortens it at every step.

By machinery lubricated with petroleum, a man may shear from 175 to 200 fleeces a day. By the old method, 50 fleeces would be considered a big day's work.

After leaving the sheep, the wool passes through ten major processes before it is ready for the tailor. Each of these require the use of intricate machinery, having bearings which run at speeds varying from 350 to 12,000 revolutions per minute.

From the clipper to the last finishing machine, a diversity of mechanical conditions exist, each of which has been studied and experimented with, and a lubricant found which meets exactly the needs of the machinery.

In solving these lubricating problems, and manufacturing oils and greases which enable these machines to perform their work, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) always has been among the leaders.

Its staff of carefully trained chemists, refiners, and lubricating engineers are constantly at work, devising new and more efficient means of reducing friction.

This Company computes its success not wholly upon its balance sheets, not wholly upon the number of useful products it manufactures, but rather upon the fact that many of the useful products of petroleum are made from material which otherwise would be wasted, and are made by processes which were evolved in the Company's laboratories.

SHOWER FOR WHITE HALL BRIDE-TO-BE

Miscellaneous Shower Given at Home of Mrs. S. G. Sykes for Miss Mildred Winn — Other White Hall News.

White Hall, June 9.—A Miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Mildred Winn was held from 2 to 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the handsome residence of Mrs. S. G. Sykes on South Main street. The hostesses besides Mrs. Sykes being Mrs. C. C. Brown, Misses Kate Ellis and Marion Winn. There were a great variety of useful gifts left for the bride-to-be, including silverware, cut glass, linens, etc. Dainty refreshments were served. Miss Winn is to become the bride of Robert Brown on June 14th, and they will reside in Springfield, out of which city Mr. Brown has a run on the C. & A.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Proffit will leave next week for Spokane, Wash., where Mr. Proffit will take a linotype machine in a job shop under the most inviting conditions. Mr. Proffit has operated a linotype on the Register-Republican for the past four years.

Trainmaster C. E. Kelf of Beardstown and two other Burlington railroad representatives were here Tuesday, looking over the grain car situation. The railroads are getting the grain car situation well in hand, and it is believed that conditions during the harvest season will be a vast improvement over the past few years, although there is bound to be more or less of a shortage of cars. The report gained currency that the Burlington had purchased the old orphan's home property midway between the two railroads, but there appears to be not the least foundation for this rumor.

It's pure in the baking. Calumet never fails to produce the sweetest and most palatable of nourishing foods.

Another reason is—it is sold at a moderate price—you save when you buy it.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. cans instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

Calumet Waffle Recipe

Daily Market Report

WHEAT MARKET

CLOSED UNSETTLED

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, June 9.—Prices shot upward today but the effect was largely transient. Demand was due for the most part to reports of a possible big railroad strike
July 1 and to government crop report that the winter wheat yield would be curtailed 51,000-000 bushels. The market closed unsettled ¼ to ¾c net higher with July 1½ to $1.35 and Sept 1½ to $1.17½. Corn lost ¼ to ½c and oats ¼ to ¾c @ ¾c. Bullish aspects of the government brought about a decided upturn as soon as the wheat market opened. For a while however, rushed to buy were held more or less in check as a result of new breaks in foreign exchange and because of weakness in the stock market.
Then gossip began to circulate that railway employees were seriously discussing a general strike and that the consequence might be great difficulty in the delivery of wheat on contract, especially during July. Shorts took alarm and did not stop bidding until the market for July had kited as high as $1.40½ a level within 1c of the topmost price so far this season. Subsequent downturns were apparently due to profit-taking on the part of holders and to advices from Springfield that proposed anti-pit legislation was again a factor.

Railroad strike predictions were barren as to corn altho bullish as to wheat, the reason being that terminal stocks of corn are heavy, whereas the wheat supply is light.

Oats were depressed.
Provisions averaged lower in line with hogs.
